NONE BETTER Than the following:

$1600 Buys a neat 4-room frame cottage on P St., near 3rd St.; lot 24x5 rods.

A 6-room modern brick cottage, lot 50x 132 feet. 172-foot roadway on the south, on 8th East near Brigham St.; the lot is worth the money.

On 1st street, south front, near H St., 4x7 rods, with good, substantial 6-room house; lots in same vicinity selling for $1000 per rod.

An S-room mod. 2-story residence on a corner on 1st St.; it's not new, but in first-class repair; lot 3x8 rods; barn and barn lot extra; can arrange terms to suit.

And can make reasonable terms, on the 8-room mod renidence on H St., bet. ist and 2nd, facing east; it's connected with sewer, and will be fenced, graded. You can select your own furnace and e. I. fixtures.

$5509 Half an acre of ground, well improved, with fruit trees, and 8-room med brick cottage, on East 5th South; south front.

An 8-room modern residence on 6th South near lith East; it's beautiful and odd; not like every house in the city, built by one of the leading architects, and no money was spared in finishing this home; it's a corner facing south and east, 50x125 feet to alley in rear. $9000.

A 3-room modern residence on 1st St., corner lot, south exposure; it's a beautiful home and surrounded by the best of homes in the city; will be pleased to show it.

Have a home on Brigham St., the lot 5 x10 rods, and only 3 years old. If bullt today would cost $10,000. The lot is cheap at $10,000; paving and all assessments paid. If the arrangements of the interior will sult you, the exterior you surely will admire. No triflers need apply on this proposition.

It is a well established fact that my list of modern homes is the most complete in the city, and if you contemplate buying I can see no reason why you should not call on me.
